Morning Courses: 10 am - 12 pm (Choose 1)

☐ BEE YOURSELF! - Honey bees are small but provide a huge impact on our daily lives by working together as a team in very innovative ways. Much like our lives, bees are busy, but finding time to stop and smell the roses is vital for them to continue their work and persevere. While learning about these small superheroes, our class will explore themes of wellness, teamwork, eco-consciousness and of course – BEES!
Instructor: Erin Webster

☐ GET WILD! - Be prepared to get wild in the Adirondacks as we explore the unique plants and animals of our backyard. This interactive adventure will have students working on fun creative projects, conducting exciting experiments, discovering our local ecosystem and learning about environmental stewardship. We have a few special “wild” friends visiting throughout the week!
Instructor: Wilton Wildlife & Preserve

☐ MOVEMENT, MINDFULNESS AND PATTERNS IN NATURE - Explore the connections between our bodies, minds, and the natural world around us, as well as the shapes and patterns that exist in nature. Through fun and interactive activities, we will learn how to move mindfully and pay attention to our surroundings, while also observing and identifying various geometric shapes and patterns found in nature. We will then use these shapes and patterns to inspire our own movements and creative expressions.
Instructor: Aimee Dowd

☐ THE STRATEGY OF DESIGN - Mix strategy, design, and fun to create a one of a kind board game. We start with learning basic game mechanisms by studying how some of the most popular games are played and gain an understanding of the different strategies used to make a game work well. Students will team up to design their own board game, build a prototype and participate in a playtest where the class will provide constructive feedback.
Instructor: Peter McPherson

Afternoon Courses: 12:30 pm - 2:30 pm (Choose 1)

☐ ANATOMY OF A COMIC BOOK - Students will learn first hand the intricacies behind developing a comic book. They will be given the opportunity to put their creativity to the test as they develop characters and storylines best suited for their comic book creations. They will storyboard their ideas, illustrate their characters, and letter their own graphic margins in order to create their very own comic book.
Instructor: Children’s Museum at Saratoga

☐ EXPLORING VANGOGH - Vincent Van Gogh has become one of the most famous and influential artists in history due to his unique style and his focus on painting everyday life. Van Gogh used art as a way to express his emotions and communicate his feelings. We will explore some of his most famous pieces, discuss the techniques and color choices used and then create our own Van Gogh inspired paintings!
